Re: Institutional Planned Development #43
The University of Chicago

Dear Commissioner Mooney:

The University of Chicago has recently briefed me on their proposed amendment to Institutional Planned Development #43. The amendment expands the boundaries of the University's PD by adding two additional properties and allows the construction of a new parking structure to support the new University of Chicago Medicine hospital pavilion called the Center for Care and Discovery. I support the amendment as proposed.

Sincerely,

Leslie A. Hairston
