

Mural Restoration: 55th Street and Lake Park Ave.

Nika Levando
Assistant Director – Neighborhood Initiatives
Office of Civic Engagement
The University of Chicago

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

Office of Civic Engagement: Community Vibrancy

- Strengthening mid-South Side neighborhoods
- Deepening engagement with the Arts
- Partnering with Chicago Public Arts Group (CPAG) on historic mural restoration in viaduct

Office of Civic Engagement: Community Vibrancy

Mural Restoration: 55th & Lake Park Avenue

Under City Stone

1972

Artist: Caryl Yasko

Mural Restoration: 55th & Lake Park Avenue

Under City Stone

1972

Caryl Yasko

C/O Chicago Public Art Group

University of Chicago: Community Vibrancy

What: gathering groups (Caryl Yasko, CPAG lead artists, local area high school and University of Chicago students, interested community members) to restore mural to good condition

When: late May – early July 2015

Where: 55th Street and Lake Park Avenue viaduct, north wall

Significance: one of the first community murals painted by a woman; designed with input from residents; 133 life sized figures of all ages, races, and classes

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

Office of Civic Engagement

University of Chicago: Community Vibrancy

More information and recap on today's presentation:
<http://news.uchicago.edu/behind-the-news>

Questions

