In 2011-12, about half of University of Chicago College students received need-based aid, and 100% of their demonstrated need is met.

Average grant assistance for students in 2011-12: $35,328.

Average net cost, including room and board, for students receiving need-based financial aid in 2011-12: $20,089.

Budget for College Aid (2012-13) is $98 million.

---

Sources of Financing for UChicago Students

![Diagram showing sources of financing]

- 57.19% UChicago Scholarships and Grants
- 3.48% Federal Assistance
- 0.89% State Assistance
- 2.19% Outside Scholarships
- 36.25% Student and Family-Funded (out-of-pocket)

Tuition: $43,581
Total Costs: $61,390

---

Addressing Student Debt

- 66% of UChicago College Students graduate debt-free.
- The default rate for UChicago College graduates is 2.3%, less than a third of the national average of 7.3% for graduates of private 4-year universities.
- $18K Odyssey Scholarship Program saves an average student $18,000 in debt. Over 1,000 students have benefited.
- The average total student loan debt, private and federal, for a UChicago College graduate is $22,663—below the national average for private 4-year universities of $29,900.
Collegiate Programs and Admissions Policies

Need-Blind Undergraduate Admissions
The University of Chicago does not take into consideration a student’s ability to pay when making undergraduate admissions decisions. Once students are admitted, the University will meet 100 percent of their demonstrated need.

UChicago Promise
UChicago Promise is the University of Chicago’s pledge to help increase college access and readiness for Chicago high school students. It marks a strong investment in the University’s long-standing commitment to providing opportunities for Chicago’s students, offering additional resources and support for those interested in attending the University of Chicago or other selective, liberal arts colleges. For more information, see promise.uchicago.edu.

Select College Prep Programs

College Bridge Program
Chicago Public School juniors and seniors can take a UChicago course for free and for credit.

Young Scholars Program
Summer program designed to enhance math abilities of middle and high school students.

6 to 16 Program
In-class and online college readiness program developed by UChicago’s Urban Education Institute.

Collegiate Scholars Program
Program that helps Chicago Public School students prepare for admission and success at elite colleges nationwide.

Upward Bound
Federally-funded Saturday, after-school, and summer college prep program, providing high school students with academic advising, tutoring, test prep, and college prep, among other assistance.

QuestBridge
Nationwide program assisting low-income families with college applications.

Undergraduate Scholarships

Odyssey Scholarship Program
Replaces loans with grants for eligible students, and supports current and incoming students whose families earn less than $90,000 per year.

Chicago Public Schools Scholarships
Full-tuition to select graduates of Chicago Public Schools.

Police and Fire Scholarships
Full-tuition to select children of active-duty or deceased in the line of duty Chicago police officers or firefighters.

University Scholarship
$5,000 to $15,000 renewable for four years.

National Merit Finalists Scholarship
$1,000 to $2,000 renewable for four years.

Yellow Ribbon Program
Every school and division at the University of Chicago participates in the Yellow Ribbon Education Enhancement Program, an educational initiative for post-9/11 servicemen and women offered in partnership with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

Commitment to Undocumented Students
The University of Chicago considers for admission students from around the world. All students who apply, regardless of citizenship, are considered for admission to the University and for every type of private financial aid for which they may qualify. In accordance with the law, the University admits, enrolls, and applies similar private aid policies to our undocumented students.

For Further Information

Matthew F. Greenwald
Senior Director, Federal Relations
1730 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Suite 275
Washington, DC 20006
(202) 461-3483
mfgreenwald@uchicago.edu

The University of Chicago
College Aid Office
1115 E. 58th Street
Chicago, IL 60637
(773) 702-8666
collegeaid.uchicago.edu

college-aid@uchicago.edu

The University of Chicago
Admissions & Aid
1101 E. 58th Street
Chicago, IL 60637
(773) 702-8650
www.uchicago.edu/admissions/